Dog Days.....

- By Marla Belzowski – Editor

We've been very lucky this year to have a mild summer so far. Hope it's been a productive one for all our members. I've been out of state again for work, so I'm a little behind in what's been happening.

So please remember to send in your brag, articles, seminar information to the newsletter so I can get it out to the membership. Please remember to fill out those membership questionnaires and send them to me so I can feature a member in our newsletter.

Hopefully I'll be in town a little more and able to come up with some good articles for the next few months. In the meanwhile, good luck at the shows.

Treats!

Super Fruit Doggie Jello

Looking for a cool, refreshing, healthy treat for your dogs? Try this recipe!

Using fresh or frozen blueberries starts the treat off with a healthy antioxidant boost and adding a cup of pure pomegranate juice kicks up the healthy benefits.

You can cut these treats into squares, use cookie cutters or use a silicone dog pan to shape each doggie jello treat.

Ingredients:

- 3 cups of low sodium chicken broth
- 1 cup of pomegranate juice
- 1 cup frozen (or fresh) blueberries
- 1/2 cup water
- 2 ice cubes
- 4 packets unflavored gelatin

Instructions:

1. Pour chicken broth and pomegranate juice into a small saucepan and stir.
2. Set the sauce pan on the stove top, on high heat, and cover. Prepare the other ingredients while it heats to a boil.
3. In a blender puree the blueberries and water.
4. Pour the blueberry mixture into a medium bowl, add two ice cubes and stir to cool the blueberries.
5. Sprinkle in the packets of gelatin and stir. After a couple minutes you will have a thick blueberry mixture or paste.
6. Once the broth and juice come to a boil, remove from the heat.
7. Using a rubber spatula, scoop out the blueberry mixture and add it to the hot broth and juice.
8. Set a timer for 5 minutes and stir until the gelatin is dissolved.
9. Carefully pour the hot liquid into a glass 13 x 9 pan or silicone dog treat pan. Refrigerate for at least 3 hours.
10. Cut into 1 inch squares or pop out and serve.

Help is needed for our Agility Set-up 3:00 PM on FRIDAY August 15th for the Trials on August 16 & 17th at the Niles Wellness Center.

Both judges are VMOs so if anyone wants to get both measurements on a new dog for the agility height card, they can come on out and get it done in one day!

No need to be entered in the trial.

Three of our normal people will not be able to attend.

We especially need men who can carry and lift equipment out of the trailers.

Of course we can use any Volunteers we can get for the actual trials as well.

Contact Rae Reinhart, (Worker Herder), billrae05@aol.com if you can work Sat. or Sun. at the trial.

We could also use help loading the trailer on Thursday night at 6:30 PM at the club if anyone is available.

 Next Agility Committee meeting is Wednesday, August 20 at 6:00 ***

If you are interested in becoming an active member of the agility program, please come join us!

Agility items for sale: - Marla Belzowski - 740-817-0022 (legendhold@johnstown.net)

I made these agility jumps about 20 years ago. They were built to the old Agility standard which has changed but still all the items are useable for training and with a little craftsmanship, the height of the jump pole cups can be changed with a power drill or screw driver. Jump positions set at 8", 12", 18", 24" (I think). They were built from the designs from Jane Simmons-Moake's book.

These are not made of pressure treated lumber, so they are not completely rot proof but they are all painted or stained and almost all have been garage/trailer kept so they are in pretty good condition. They are a little lighter than a pressure treated lumber would be to handle. Since I have no time to work on agility with my dogs anymore, I'm willing to part with this very nice jumps to someone who wants to use them or training.

Flag jump. This jump has holes at the top which are suitable to put a pole through to hang a flag from. 4 red and blue striped poles go with it. Stained uprights. - $25.00 (with PVC jump poles).

Seesaw-teeter support stand. This is built to allow a pipe to be added attached to a teeter plank. The wings come off with wing nuts so the system can be stored in a smaller area. Stained sides, blue painted centerpiece. Additional paint is available to touch it up. - $20.00

Tire jump support: This red frame has two stained side pieces which come off with wing nuts. Made to Jane Simmon-Moake original designs. This frame can hold a regular real tire, PVC ones, or a newer break away one. Just add chains or bungees to the hooks on the frame. - $25.00

"Brick faced" solid wing jumps which I can cut down to make them easier to handle and more in accordance to current agility wing jump standards - these are very pretty jumps with poles -$40.00.

Lattice wing jump which is stained sides and white lattice mesh with poles - $40.00.

Three clean blue plastic drums. Two are suitable to hold the poles or could be a barrel jump if pole cup holders were attached to them. One plastic drum has already been converted to be the mouth for a collapsed chute but needs a new base support plywood piece or sand bags to keep it held down.. $20.00 each. (total of $60 for all of them)

Collapsed-Chute fabric that has some holes that need work but is ok for training. - $35 (originally this was over $180 to have made)

Misc weave poles and PVC poles for markers. I don't have a weave base, these were to stick in the ground. All will need cut down more for current standards: $15 for all of them. (total of about 12)

Top for a pause table. Green felt coated plywood with wood stain sides. Great for show photos. Needs legs or a PVC support base. - $50

- Or take it all for $275 ($35 savings from individual prices) and I'll deliver them to you with the touch up paint I have left over -
