Welfare

On June 16th, Fortune, LegendHold Empress O' T World CD, HSAsd, HTAD1-s, HRD1-s, ASCA-STDs, TT passed away at home from complications to cancer. She was just a few months shy of 13 years old. Fortune was the best herding dog I never trained. She is the one who taught me how herding was done. She had a huge sweeping out run which I really never taught to her. She often qualified and placed in classes, even when I was directing her the wrong way. She would give me that look like "Just shut up, stand back, and I'll put them where they should go". She won a Reserve High in trial on her last leg of her HTAD1-s title.

Fortune was the mother of Birgit - LegendHold Pilgrim's Chorus, CD, RN, Paul - LegendHold Nessum Dorma, CD, RN, and Tavish - LegendHold Con Te Partio UD, TD, PT, NJP who was the CCA High in Trial winner a few years ago with his owner Judy Cummings of California.

Fortune was the grandma of Gemini, Solar, Bardar and Lhotse. She was one of only two pups produced by LegendHold When Ashes Ascend CDX, RN, and was the litter sister of (Ch ptd) LegendHold Warrior Princess CD, PT - "Xena". Fortune's passing leaves a very big empty place in the house. She was an amazing dog and leaves an amazing legacy here at LegendHold Collies.

Conneaut Lake Bark Park Canine Wedding:

by Perri Graf

On a beautiful day in May, CH Old Bays Voyage to Nitestar, Miss Sophie, and CH Bear N Mind's Master and Commander, Mr. Isaac, were united in silly muttrimony. Ok. Ok. Sounds goofy. And that's exactly what it was. The Conneaut Lake Bark Park has been sponsoring canine weddings for several years. This year is the first year that the married couple will actually consummate their marriage later.

On May 16, 2015, the Park was decorated, invitations sent, and many activities were planned. After a dock diving demonstration where the prospective groom refused to jump, there was a King and Queen of the Bark Park competition with contestants dressed in their finest garb. There were games and socialization and lots of fun.

At 1:00 PM, Sophie and Isaac were united in muttrimony by the Mayor of Conneaut Lake, PA.

Their vows included promises to share their splunkies, join each other in rescuing people, not to drool in the water bowl and to pull their weight in the draft test of marriage. They were given in marriage by their moms, Perri Graf and Debbie Myers.

The wedding party included Queen of the Bark Park, Mandy, and King of the Bark Park, Max, who were the Maid of Honor and Best Man. Wedding pictures were taken and then all the guests joined in the celebration with cake for dogs and handlers.

The couple will remain in each of their homes until the time is right to make those babies, and will continue their jobs in the area of water rescue and showing.

COLUMBUS ALL BREED TRAINING CLUB
PROUDLY PRESENTS
LAURA ROMANIK
Improve Your Use of Positive Reinforcement When Training For Obedience Competition
AUGUST 22nd & 23rd, 2015

Location: Columbus All Breed Training Club
2164 Williams Rd
Columbus, OH 43207

The main goal of this seminar is to provide obedience enthusiasts with information and positive reinforcement based training techniques to address the most common questions, problems, and training holes that Laura has seen in her extensive travels giving seminars across the country. Because Laura does not believe that it is possible for anyone to learn a completely new training system in one weekend, in many cases, the games and skills have been selected to compliment your existing training rather than completely replace it. Topics to be covered include:

- Attention! This is the number one requested seminar topic. How to get and keep attention to you during training and performance, and how to structure your training sessions so that you avoid allowing and inadvertently reinforcing poor attention.
- Heeling focus and duration: Improve focus and stretch the time/distance your dog will heel before it gets a reward without losing focus (dog should have been previously introduced to heeling and be able to heel for a few steps in a straight line).
- Retrieve Hold: How to improve the hold and eliminate mouthing and dropping of the DB.
- Drop on Recall: Using the multiple barrier method to teach or sharpen up your dog's drop on recall.
- Angle Jump Game: Introduce taking the jump at an angle for Directed Jumping and proof for bad throws in the Retrieve Over High Jump exercise (does not require a retrieve).
- Signals: How to transfer a skill from a verbal command to a signal (or vice versa)
- Scent Game: Introduce your dog to searching for an item with your scent. This game is also good to improve the confidence of those dogs already doing articles. Video of the next steps for teaching scent discrimination.
- Go Out Barrier Touch: How to teach a paw touch of a barrier for go outs. This can be the foundational method for teaching go outs, or can be added to an existing go out to improve the dog's commitment and willingness to go far enough.
- Ring Transition: How to put your trained skills together for a ring performance and maintain motivation under ring conditions (i.e. no food or toys in the ring)

About Laura: For 25 years, Laura Romanik has excelled in competitive obedience, earning hundreds of High in Trials and High Combined awards, national all-breed rankings on several dogs including the Top Obedience Dog of all breeds in 2009, tournament placements and finishing Obedience Trial Championships on three dogs: two Shelties and the first Beagle to be awarded an OTCH. Her Sheltie, Bright earned UDX 20 and over 2300 OTCH points, becoming the first Sheltie to earn both an OTCH and a Herding Championship. Her Sheltie, Flare, is on the top 25 all breed list of lifetime OTCH points with 3,895 points. Flare went from CD to OTCH in just 11 months, all before she was three years old. In 2009, Laura and Flare achieved the prestigious award of Obedience Dog of the Year by accumulating the most OTCH points of any dog in the nation. Laura's current partner, Laser, completed his Novice title with an average score of over 198.5 with 8 High in Trial awards. He also won the Novice Division of the 2014 AKC Obedience Classic Tournament with two scores of 199 and a perfect 200.

In addition to her own success, Laura has a knack for breaking exercises down and explaining her techniques and principles in a straightforward way that others can understand. Laura's students have earned many titles from Rally Novice through OTCH, High in Trial, High Combined awards and National Specialty wins. As an instructor, Laura specializes in taking on the difficult dogs and problems that have resisted improvement elsewhere.

Laura loves obedience training because of the relationship and teamwork that it allows her to develop with her dogs. She uses a training approach that is primarily based on positive reinforcement and built on scientifically recognized behavioral principles. Laura excels at teaching reliable responses to commands, while motivating dogs to understand and enjoy the training process. She enjoys working with obedience enthusiasts at all levels. No matter what your experience, breed of dog, goals or training philosophies, she will work with you to improve your training and results.

Don't miss out on this opportunity! Registration form attached.
