The Irish sheltie boys, Sam and Tag, each earned a title at our October agility trial. Tag got his Open Standard Preferred title and Sam got his Open Jumpers Preferred title. They are pictured here "celebrating" - Sam (left) and Tag (right).

We wish to thank Rae and Bill Reinhart and Thursday night team teachers for all their help in getting us prepared. Now on to Excellent level!

A Special Brag

From Laura Bell

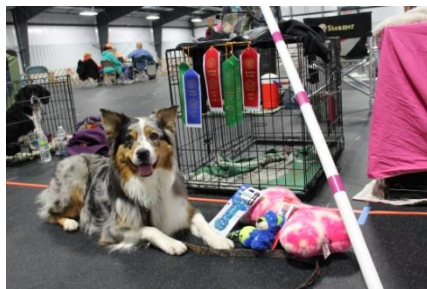

I wanted to send in this picture for the November YABTC newsletter if there's still room. It's kind of long...

My 3 year old Aussie, Bell's Slice of Countrywoods, was entered in the October Agility Trial hosted at the club.

She competed in two Novice classes on both Saturday and Sunday and brought home a 1st place ribbon in Fast, a 2nd in Standard and a 2nd in Jumpers With Weaves. She almost qualified in her fourth run of the trial, but a foot came down too early on the broad jump and NQ'd her. Had she gotten that run, she would have earned her Novice Standard agility title, the first agility title for either of us. Before we left the ring we were given the bar from the last jump and later a giant stuffed bone toy.

Yvette Shipman and CSPN teamed up and gave me Slice's pictures for the weekend. I can't begin to say how much all that meant to me. Slice was diagnosed with lymphoma in July, and despite our attempts to prolong her life with chemotherapy the cancer just keeps coming back. We're not done fighting yet, but it does appear that this is something that won't be beat.

We've only been coming to the club for about a year and a half now, but the support and encouragement the members and have shown us has been something special and I can't begin to say how appreciated it is. Thank you for a memorable weekend!

Recipes from the Show

From Marla Belzowski

Back by popular demand...here is the recipe for Broccoli Salad everyone has been asking about.

Broccoli Salad

(Makes about 14 - servings)

Dressing:

3/4 cup light brown sugar

1/4 cup Raspberry Wine Vinegar (Maitre Jacques)

1-1/4 cup mayonnaise

Shake up the dressing and let sit overnight in a container to melt out the sugar. If the dressing is too thick add a little more vinegar. Add last to prevent sogginess in the salad. In a large bowl, cut up 4 large stalks of broccoli flowerets off the stems (about 6-7 cups)

Add one, 8 ounce bag of fancy shredded sharp cheddar cheese.

Add one, 5 ounce bag of Craisins (any infused flavor will also work)

Add 1/2, of an 8 ounce bag of roasted, lightly salted sunflower seeds

Add 1/2 of a 6 ounce bag of shelled pistachios

Add 1/2 pound of crisped bacon

Add the broccoli and cheese to a large bowl. This can be stored overnight. Add the remaining dry ingredients just before serving to prevent sogginess. Add dressing and toss the salad until lightly coated in dressing just before serving.

Can keep up to 3 days refrigerated, but nuts will get a little soggy.

Nationals, Here I Come!

By Lisa Sangregorio

I've been home for a week and the buzz has just started to wear off. It was my first trip to the DPCA nationals.

My little Jolie (Dancing Star's Once Upon a Dream) was nominated for the futurity competition and I was filled with anticipation and excitement as I hopped into the car after school and took the long rainy drive to Lancaster Pa.

Being in the ring with some of the best handlers in the game was surreal. I looked around at the remarkable depth of quality I was seeing in our breed and was simply delighted. I had absolutely no expectations for this endeavor. I was just excited to participate, so when our judge, Mrs. Jocelyn Mullins, an owner handler herself, allowed us to make the cut, I was ecstatic!

I had a great experience at our nationals, meeting exceptional breeders, judges, and Doberman fanciers.

The passion for our breed was evident, especially in our new club president who took the time to introduce himself and chat with practically everyone. If you have never had the chance to go to your club's nationals I highly recommend you do so.

I had the opportunity to meet my girl's sire in person and several of her relatives.

Jolie's breeder, Liz Gentile, organized a dinner with all of the owners of her litter, which included a few Canadian friends. I learned so much!

The breed specific vendors were amazing! The decorations, prizes, and events were great! I had thought this was going to be a once in a lifetime experience until they announced next's years national was going to be in Chicago. Don't I have a son living there?

Hmmmm....

Board Member - Bio for Sharon Phillips
(Incumbent Boardmember)

I first became interested in purebred dogs when my Father got rid of my pound puppy (which looking a photos I realize now was a Manchester Terrier). He wasn't a registered dog, was somehow supposed to make it easier on me. That was a mistake. LOL, a big one.

From that point my allowance went towards those "How to Raise and Train" books that were common, and Dog World magazine.

I read everything the library had to offer, both in the kids and adult sections. At 9 I announced I wanted a Saluki for my birthday. I got a poodle, just to shut me up I suspect. LOL. Then I got the training book "Training You to Train Your Dog" and then the clippers so I could groom my own dog. Sparky should have turned me off of dogs, he was one bad little poodle. He bit my brother 6 times in his 5 short years of life.

Sparky never bit me, maybe he realized I was not afraid of him or maybe it was the training.

Many years later I have had many breeds and dabbled in many venues with those dogs. I have put titles on over 18 different dogs and 9 different breeds. Plus dogs I trained and never titled.

I did Doberman, Whippet and Collie rescue for a number of years. Some of those dogs never left, some found homes. I have titled dogs in the Terrier, Sporting, Non Sporting and Hound groups. However most of my dogs have been from the Herding Group. Many of my dogs never saw the inside of the show ring. But I have enjoyed “showing off” those dogs that did.

My first love is Obedience, but I admire any dog that loves his work. In the end when all is said and done and you have to say that last goodbye to a faithful friend, I don't regret going to one more dog show. It's one more walk in the woods, playtime in the yard, snuggle on the couch watching a movie I miss.

THIS is why most of us have dogs. Who knows why dogs want to be with us, many times we are not worthy.

If re-elected I will try to serve with the best interest of the club and our companions in mind.

Sharon Phillips, member since 2000 or 2001, I really can't remember.

Bio Elaine Shively – Board Member (Incumbent Board member)

She has served as a board member for sixteen years and as recording secretary for five or six years. Elaine has chaired and has been a member of various committees for YABTC: Agility Trial, Policy, Auditing, Awards, Nominating, Lee Jackson Award, and the Good Sportsmanship Award. She has stewarded at obedience trials and done almost all jobs at agility trials. She has assisted with teaching obedience and agility classes.

Elaine's first dog was a border collie that faithfully followed her between her home and her grandfather's farm. Elaine has owned and trained Shetland sheepdogs for over forty years. Elaine makes her home in Austintown with her two Shelties, Laurie and Jessie. She enjoys training in agility and in obedience, and recently in flyball. She also is an active member of the Three Rivers Shetland Sheepdog Club of Greater Pittsburgh. Elaine and her Shelties have earned titles in both agility and obedience.

Training Director's Corner

Hey gang! The year is winding-down... where did 2015 go?

I know we always say this as the howliday season sets in...

Speaking of the howlolidays, remember to keep non-friendly foodstuffs away from Rover and Towser... remind your howliday visitors that your furkids may not have table scraps and under-the-table hand-outs!

The New Year looms... we will be needing Agility and Obedience instructors for 2016!

PLEASE find time to help your club... I know many folks are a bit on the shy side and don't feel comfortable teaching. However, ASSISTING can be rewarding, and you can still hover in the background and help the instructor by helping along the sidelines.

You don't know how much you help your instructor by fielding questions, checking collars and leads, taking attendance, setting-up equipment, yadda, yadda, yadda!

Instructors really do appreciate any help they get, and you will get a feel for the teaching methods of many instructors. This is a way to get your feet wet and move on to bigger things... or even stay put as an assistant. YOU are most valuable, and you do get reductions of your yearly dues by helping!

2016... do you know your goals for the new year?

Did/Will you meet your goals for 2015? The only way you will know, is if you set a goal for your team...

Get that JWW? TDX? UD? RATO? Know what you want to get out of the year, and FOCUS!

The Annual Conformation Class has been approved by the club board, and will start January 10th, 2016. The popular 8 week course taught by Susan Fithian will culminate in the YABTC Sanctioned Puppy Match, March 6th, 2016.

Each puppy entered will receive a free entry in the puppy match. Sign-up with Susan at your convenience, $100/non-members, and $50/members. There will NOT be public breed ring run-thrus after each class, like in previous years.

Lastly, please feel free to come train at the building, either in classes, or using the free ring, whenever the building is open. Please wear comfortable, sensible shoes... but please don't go barefoot!

It's just not safe... we're continually working on the building, obedience and agility equipment is constantly used, ring gating is always set up... and wooden things splinter, metal things can leave shavings.

So, be safe, and wear appropriate footgear! Plus, barefooting it kinda looks bad to the public and is not very sanitary. Registrar and Instructors please remind new students that flip-flops, or similar loose footwear is not acceptable for classes.

After the first class, inappropriate footgear wearers will have to sit ringside, if they cannot change to better shoes.
